

Before Molly Knight came to acting she spent many years in Europe as a full time musician (guitarist/singer/songwriter) eventually settling in Berlin where she played her original music in venues and festivals with her three piece band. Molly has had several principle roles at WAAPA including Olga Three Sisters, Paulina A Winter's Tale, Sylv Berkoff's East, and Candy Unidentified Human Remains and the True Nature of Love. She has also had lead roles in several short films, one of which, A Job for the Boys, won platinum at 'Worldfest' Houston '06. Molly was also the winner of WAAPA's prestigious Burton Prize for performance of classical text in 2007.
